COSTLY BINGLE BEATS SOX, 1-0

Detroit, Mich., June 28.—Bernie Boland with his curly curves stopped the puncheon White Sox stone still yesterday and Detroit, with the help of one blunder by the champions, was able to nose out a victory, 1 to 0, in the final game of the series.

As far as pitching goes, Boland found a formidable rival in our Dave Danforth, who would have gone along dueling on equal terms, possibly until darkness stopped the battle, had not the one slip in his support allowed the one and winning run to count.

Dave sailed his southpaw curves at the enemy with admirable effect, his speed being good and his control perfect, and only six blows were registered against him. He might have battled Boland to a tie, but it didn't look as if the Sox could have scored a run had the game lasted all summer.

When the champions get a man on third base with no one out, and the clean-up portion of the batting order coming, and yet can't score a run, indications are that the punch is all gone. That occurred to the Sox in the seventh, when Eddie Collins started by beating out a bunt, then stole second and scooted on to third when Velle's throw went to the outfield. The score:

THREE BRAVEN ENLIST

Boston, June 28.—Ray Powell, Walter Rehg and Joseph Kelly, outfielders with the Boston Nationals, will join the naval reserve force at Newport July 6. The three players, all of whom are in class 1 of the draft, went to Newport recently and enlisted and yesterday were ordered to report for duty within ten days. Powell and Rehg came to Boston last year from Providence and Kelly in 1916 from the Chicago Cubs.

GIANTS WIN

Boston, June 28.—The Giants used three pitchers, but easily won their fourth straight game of the series and its 10th straight of the season from Boston. The score was 4 to 4. Pilling was given had support. Zimmerman was put out of the game in the second inning for disputing a decision by Byron Ross, from San Antonio, pitched his first game and was credited with the New York victory.

MIKE AND IKE—THEY LOOK ALIKE

CHANGE BOXERS FOR LOOP SHOW

Johnnie Ritchie and Danny Goodman Surrender Post to Eddie McGorty and His Flock.

Chicago, June 28.—Johnnie Ritchie, the Camp Grant bantam, who has been amusing the loop noon-hour crowds daily on the portable prize ring with short whirlwind bouts against Sergeant Harry Aliloff, returned to camp yesterday home sick. With him went his partner, Private Danny Goodman and Private Louis Schultz. Their places were taken by Corporal Eddie McGorty, Private Joe Storz, Sergeant Mike Miskewy and boxing instructor Fred Dyer, who will continue to give street crowds snappy ring performances every noon from the giant army liberty truck.

The civilian committee in charge of the July 4 celebration at Camp Grant, of which Emil C. Wetten is chairman, made the change to keep the boys from becoming stale. Johnnie Ritchie surprised Mr. Wetten yesterday morning by saying he hoped he would be sent "home" by evening.

Today James J. Corbett, who refereed in the portable ring yesterday, and a dozen show girls from "Doing Our Bit" did their bit for the big Fourth of July carnival.

The former champion refereed the bouts and the girls collected spare change from onlookers.

In accepting the invitation for Sunday evening dinner at the South Shore Country club, General Martin said he expected that at least fifteen of his staff officers with their wives would be present. Captain Ralph Lathrop of the Three Hundred Forty-third Infantry, and Sergeant Major William Barratt of the British army will give an exhibition of the bayonet, its use and its relation to boxing.

SOME STUNTS MICHAEL MIGHT TRY SINCE HE CAGHT BALL FROM SKY

IF MIKE CAN INTERCEPT A BASE BALL DROPPED 700 FEET HE CAN CATCH ANYTHING FROM MUMPS

Word from Kelly aviation field, Texas, says that Michael Bessolo, former college baseball player, has performed the miraculous stunt of catching a baseball dropped from an airplane at the height of 700 feet from the ground. And Mike used just an ordinary infielder's glove to do it. Bessolo is a corporal. His stunt is said to be easily a new world's record. It puts in the shade the feats of Billy Sullivan and Charley Street, the catchers who caught baseballs dropped from the Washington monument. Now officers are wondering if Michael's versatility can't be directed in some useful manner against the Kaiser.

POP GEERS DEAN OF RACE DRIVERS STILL HAS GOODS

Cleveland, June 28.—Edward F. Geers, known as the silent man of the sulky and the dean of the Grand Circuit drivers, is at the North Randall track, where he will remain until the Grand Circuit opens the week of July 8. "Pop" is 67, but he doesn't look it.

Trainers come and trainers go, but Geers seems to go on forever. His features are browned by the accumulated tan of years spent in the open under hot suns. His body is twisted and wrecked by his many accidents. But his eye still has a youthful sparkle. The star of his present string is St. Frisco 2:01½.

Asked how long he intended to drive, "Pop" answered in his peculiar drawl: "Well, I don't know. Maybe 10 years or more. If I keep on feeling the same I guess I'll live to be 100. But it will all depend on this St. Frisco horse. If I can just drive him one mile in two minutes or better I guess that I'll be about ready to step down and let the younger fellows do the driving. But I couldn't keep away from the horses. I'd just have to go to the races. And I guess I'll own a couple as long as I live."

There you have "Pop" Geers' ambition to drive St. Frisco to a record of two minutes or better.

How Long Must I Suffer From the Pangs of Rheumatism

Is There No Real Relief in Sight?

Doubtless like other sufferers, you have often asked yourself this question, which continues to remain unanswered.

Science has proven that your Rheumatism is caused by a germ in your blood, and the only way to reach it is by a remedy which eliminates and removes these little pain demons from your blood. This explains why liniments and lotions can do no permanent good, for they

CHRISTIAN SCIENTIST WORKERS.

Sixty-three camp welfare workers of the Christian Science church are employed in the various camps, cantonments, forts and military stations of the United States. There are 15 welfare room attendants and hundreds of Christian Scientists who are members of local and state camp welfare committees. Forty-two automobiles are in use by the camp workers. These cars, marked "Christian Science Welfare Committee," are used to assist camp postmasters, letters and telegrams from anxious mothers asking for information about their sons are received and answered. "These messages are always willingly and promptly responded to as part of the welfare work," said Avery Conoley of the Christian Science committee on publications.

At a reading room in England, maintained for the use of soldiers, reports show that in six weeks there was a growth in attendance from 72 to 411 a week.

ADMINISTRATORS CONVEY.

The first conference of all the county food administrators of the state of Washington, as well as all other officials connected with the work in that state, was held at Spokane recently. Every county was represented and questions and discussions took a wide range. Two of the administrators were women.

BRUINS WINNER FROM REDS, 7-1

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 28.—Any really good pitcher can lick the crumbling Reds in five rounds. That's why Mistah Phil Douglas didn't waste any more time on them yesterday. With the count 7 to 1 in the first half of the fifth Douglas sought the cool, refreshing shade and allowed Mistah Nick Carter to wind up his baseball affairs. Nick won emancipation from the bullpen by holding the Reds where Mistah Phil left them. The men of Matt's clipped two hits and one tally from Douglas and Carter stalled along through the five runless rounds, during which four blows were struck by the swiftly falling Reds.

This was Mistah Phil's fifth successive win, and he observed the great event in a fitting manner by inhabiting his week-end silk shirt this evening. The hotel is filled with flashily dressed and bedimmed horsemen, and he sure created a favorable impression. When Mistah Phil wins he busts his rule about the week-end shirt and wears it in the middle of the week. Poetic license, you might say. The score: Chicago, R. H. P. O. A. E.

GIRLS TO HANDLE CROWDS AT NORTH SIDE BALL PARK

Chicago, June 28.—When the Chicago Cubs return to the North Side park woman ushers will handle the crowd instead of the boys who have heretofore directed patrons to their seats. This announcement was made yesterday by Walter Craighead, business manager of the Cubs. The girls will get their first trial July 4, when a fireworks show will be held. Craighead has made application for a number of girls and believes the change will meet with the approval of the fans.

FULTON-BURNS MATCH.
